PUBLICATION HISTORY

A complete list of Traditional Latin Masses was maintained after the Second Vatican Council by Mr. Radko Jansky in his Catholic Traditionalist Directory (last published in 1989) and then by Fr. Francis LeBlanc in his Directory of Tridentine Latin Masses (last published in 1992). Since 1994 the only authorized successor to these two pioneering works, the National Registry of Traditional Latin Masses, maintains, updates, and publishes monthly the Official Traditional Catholic Directory, Listing All Traditional Latin Masses and Traditional Resources for North America.

PREFACE

Sunt aliqui, qui vos conturbant et volunt convertere evangelium Christi. Sed licet nos aut angelus de caelo evangelizet vobis praeterquam quod evangelizavimus vobis, anathema sit. (Galatians 1:7-8)

The National Registry of Traditional Latin Masses is pleased to offer you the Official Traditional Catholic Directory: Listing All Traditional Latin Masses and Resources for North America. The Traditional Latin Mass is the perpetually approved Roman Catholic Mass as it existed before the introduction of radical changes in the decade before and after the Second Vatican Council (1962-1965).

This Directory is the only comprehensive source for all Traditional Latin Masses regularly and publicly celebrated and for associated traditional resources. In its categorical listings, the Directory also informs its readers about which Masses that claim to be traditional are actually to be shunned as "pseudotraditional" and invalid. The Registry avails itself of sources in the public domain, as well as information provided directly by our readers. The Registry operates independently of any diocese, or religious society, or other web site.

Inaccuracies are bound to occur in a large listing such as this, which by its nature is subject to significant change. Although the Registry has made a reasonable effort to provide a current and accurate list, the Registry cannot perform an individual verification of each listing. Thus, the accuracy of this list is ultimately the responsibility of the individual celebrants and site representatives, as well as our readers, who should report to the Registry any additions, corrections, and deletions.

Finally, on behalf of all traditional Catholic faithful, the Registry again expresses its gratitude to all traditional Catholic priests who have courageously, and often at great personal sacrifice, heeded St. Paul's Apostolic admonition: State et tenete traditiones (2 Thessalonians 2:15). Many of these priests have been offering the Traditional Latin Mass under the authority of Apostolic Tradition, the dogmatic Council of Trent, and the infallible Papal Bull of Pope St. Pius V, from before any purported "indults" or "motus."

THE NATIONAL REGISTRY OF TRADITIONAL LATIN MASSES

The Registry, in operation since 1994, maintains a comprehensive list by sponsoring organization of the regularly and publicly scheduled fully Traditional Latin Masses of the Roman Rite (sometimes inaccurately termed "Tridentine") in North America, as well as contacts for Mass sites outside North America. For informational purposes it also lists partially Traditional Latin Masses (so-called "modernized" forms of 1956, 1960, and 1962), so that they can be distinguished from the fully Traditional Latin Masses.

The Registry also lists traditional Catholic organizations, seminaries, religious orders, lay societies, periodicals, suppliers, retreats, and schooling, in addition to general information on traditional liturgy and practice.

An eBook edition of the list is published annually in January, with monthly revised editions, as the Official Traditional Catholic Directory: Listing All Traditional Latin Masses and Traditional Resources for North America. These editions are made available courtesy of the TRADITIO Traditional Roman Catholic Network in the Official Traditional Catholic Directory department at www.traditio.com/nat.htm.

THE TRADITIONAL ROMAN CATHOLIC LATIN MASS

According to Roman Catholic Tradition, the Traditional (pre-Vatican II Roman Rite, "Tridentine") Latin Mass in all its essentials was passed on by St. Peter, the first pope, to the Church. The Apostles themselves, according to St. Ambrose, worked at its elaboration. It reached its complete perfection with Popes St. Damasus (fourth century) and St. Gregory the Great (sixth century). As the great liturgical scholar, Fr. Adrian Fortescue, wrote, this Mass is:

the most venerable in all Christendom, with a history of unbroken use far longer than that of any Eastern rite, there being no doubt that the essential parts of the Mass are of Apostolic origin.

"The Most Beautiful Thing This Side of Heaven"

When we attend this Mass, we are directly connected with Our Lord, with the Apostles themselves, with the Saints and Martyrs who died for the privilege of attending this Mass, and with all the Catholic faithful from the first century up to the present day. This Mass developed over the centuries into a perfect art form, as well as worship. It has always been known for its beauty, reverence, and mystery. It has inspired authors and poets, Saints and sinners, popes and peasants. Within the space of an hour, it can inspire spirituality through the flow of graces otherwise unattainable.

What Is the Traditional Latin Mass?

The Mass is a sacrifice, an act by which the Church gives to Almighty God, officially and in the name of all, the worship that is due to Him alone. In the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, Jesus Christ, through the ministry of the priest, offers Himself to God in an unbloody manner under the appearances of bread and wine. Christ enables us through Himself to adore God in a suitable manner, to thank Him worthily for all His favors, to render Him full satisfaction for sin by the offering of the sacrifice of Calvary, and to address to Him our needs.

What to Expect at the Traditional Latin Mass

For those who have never before participated at a Traditional Latin Mass, the formality and elaborate ritual of this Mass may at first seem unfamiliar. There is an atmosphere of prayer and quiet reverence among the people in the pews as they participate, interiorly, in the Sacred Mysteries. Before Mass silence is kept to show respect for the Real Presence of Our Lord Jesus Christ in the Blessed Sacrament, Which is reserved in the tabernacle at the center of the altar.

The crucifix above the altar reminds the congregation that the Sacrifice of the Cross and the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass are one and the same. The lighted candles on the altar symbolize Christ as the Light of the World. The priest and the congregation together face the tabernacle and altar where the Mass is offered.

The Mass is celebrated in Latin, the official language of the Roman Catholic Church, used as a liturgical language in the West since as early as the first century. The unchanging nature of the Latin language has preserved the orthodox doctrine of the Mass, handed down from the the Apostles and the early Church Fathers. The congregation uses prayerbooks, called missals, which have the Latin text accompanied by its vernacular translation.

The faithful receive Holy Communion on the tongue while kneeling out of reverence. Communion is given only under the species of bread with the words (translated from the Latin): "May the Body of our Lord Jesus Christ preserve your soul unto life everlasting. Amen."

A Mass in which the priest recites the prayers is called a Low Mass. A Mass in which the priest and choir sing parts of the Mass and use a more elaborate ceremonial is called a High Mass. The Gregorian chant (plainsong) used at High Mass is the ancient music of the Roman Catholic liturgy, named after Pope St. Gregory I (590-604), who codified the existing chant melodies.

QUO PRIMUM: THE INFALLIBLE BULL OF POPE ST. PIUS V

"Quo Primum is no 'merely ecclesiastical law' (can. 11) that can be revoked, but has been enacted into law and declared Ex Cathedra to be irreformable, and is therefore a solemnly defined moral doctrine which is also of itself infallible and irreformable (DB 1819). Quo Primum has been infallibly declared to be irreformable because the rite of Mass codified (canonized) in the Tridentine Missal is the 'received and approved rite' (the rite of Sacred Tradition) [Iniunctum nobis] of the Roman Church that has been 'handed down by the Holy Roman Church' (a sacrosancta Romana Ecclesia ... tradita) [Quo Primum]. The statutes of Quo Primum, therefore, pertain to Divine Law insofar as they constitute a particular application of the divine law that has been expressed in its general formulation in the Tridentine Profession of Faith [Iniunctum nobis]." Fr. Paul L. Kramer, B.Ph., S.T.B., M.Div., A Theological Vindication of Roman Catholic Traditionalism (Nazareth, India: Apostle Publications, [1997]).

Pius Bishop Servant of the Servants of God

For a Perpetual Memorial of the Matter

Upon Our elevation to the Apostolic throne, We gladly turned Our mind and energies, and directed all Our thoughts, to the matter of preserving incorrupt the public worship of the Church; and We have striven, with God's help, by every means in Our power to achieve that purpose.

Whereas amongst other decrees of the Holy Council of Trent, We were charged with revision and re-issue of the sacred books, to wit, the Catechism, the Missal, and the Breviary; and whereas We have with God's consent published a Catechism for the instruction of the faithful and thoroughly revised the Breviary for the due performance of the Divine Office, We next, in order that the Missal and Breviary might be in perfect harmony, as is right and proper (considering that it is altogether fitting that there should be in the Church only one appropriate manner of Psalmody and one sole rite of celebrating Mass), deemed it necessary to give Our immediate attention to what still remained to be done, namely the reediting of the Missal, with the least possible delay.

We resolved accordingly to delegate this task to a select committee of scholars; and they, having at every stage of their work and with the utmost care collated the ancient codices in Our Vatican Library and reliable (original or amended) codices from elsewhere, and having also consulted the writing of ancient and approved authors who have bequeathed to us records relating to the said sacred rites, thus restored the Missal itself to the pristine form and rite of the Holy Fathers.

When this production had been subjected to close scrutiny and further amended, We, after mature consideration, ordered that the final result be forthwith printed and published in Rome, so that all may enjoy the fruit of this labor; that priests may know what prayers to use, and what rites and ceremonies they are to observe henceforward in the celebration of Masses.

Now therefore, in order that all everywhere may adopt and observe what has been delivered to them by the Holy Roman Church, Mother and Mistress of the other churches, it shall be unlawful henceforth and forever throughout the Christian world to sing or to read Masses according to any formula other than that of this Missal published by Us; this ordinance to apply to all churches and chapels, with or without care of souls, patriarchal, collegiate, and parochial, be they secular or belonging to any religious Order, whether of men (including the military Orders) or of women, in which conventual Masses are or ought to be sung aloud in choir or read privately according to the rites and customs of the Roman Church; to apply, moreover, even if the said churches have been in any way exempted, whether by indult of the Apostolic See, by custom, by privilege, or even by oath or Apostolic confirmation, or have their rights and faculties guaranteed to them in any other way whatsoever, saving only those in which the practice of saying Mass differently was granted over 200 years ago simultaneously with the Apostolic See's institution and confirmation of the Church, and those in which there has prevailed a similar custom followed continuously for a period of not less than 200 years; in which cases We in no wise rescind their prerogatives or customs aforesaid.

Nevertheless, if this Missal which We have seen fit to publish be more agreeable to these last, We hereby permit them to celebrate Mass according to its rite, subject to the consent of their bishop or prelate, and of their whole Chapter, all else to the contrary notwithstanding. All other churches aforesaid are hereby denied the use of other missals, which are to be wholly and entirely rejected; and by this present Constitution, which shall have the force of law in perpetuity. We order and enjoin under pain of Our displeasure that nothing be added to Our newly published Missal, nothing omitted therefrom, and nothing whatsoever altered therein.

We specifically command each and every patriarch, administrator and all other persons of whatsoever ecclesiastical dignity, be they even Cardinals of the Holy Roman Church or possessed of any other rank or preeminence, and We order them by virtue of holy obedience to sing or to read the Mass according to the rite and manner and norm herein laid down by Us, and henceforward to discontinue and utterly discard all other rubrics and rites of other missals, howsoever ancient, which they have been accustomed to follow, and not to presume in celebrating Mass to introduce any ceremonies or recite any prayers other than those contained in this Missal.

Furthermore, by these presents and by virtue of Our Apostolic authority We give and grant in perpetuity that for the singing or reading of Mass in any church whatsoever, this Missal may be followed absolutely, without any scruple of conscience or fear of incurring any penalty, judgment or censure, and may be freely and lawfully used. Nor shall bishops, administrators, canons, chaplains, and other secular priests, or religious of whatsoever Order or by whatsoever title designated, be obliged to celebrate Mass otherwise than enjoined by Us.

We likewise order and declare that no one whosoever shall be forced or coerced into altering this Missal and that this present Constitution can never be revoked or modified, but shall for ever remain valid and have the force of law, notwithstanding previous constitutions or edicts of provincial or synodal councils, and notwithstanding the usage of the churches aforesaid, established by very long and even immemorial prescription, saving only usage of more than 200 years.

Consequently it is Our will, and by the same authority We decree, that one month after publication of this Our constitution and Missal, priests of the Roman Curia shall be obliged to sing or to read the Mass in accordance therewith; others south of the Alps, after three months; those who live beyond the Alps, after six months or as soon as the Missal becomes available for purchase.

Furthermore, in order that the said Missal may be preserved incorrupt and kept free from defects and errors, the penalty for non-observance in the case of all printers resident in territory directly or indirectly subject to Ourselves and the Holy Roman Church shall be forfeiture of their books and a fine of 100 gold ducats payable by that very fact to the Apostolic Treasury. In the case of those resident in other parts of the world, it shall be automatic excommunication and other penalties at Our discretion; and by Our Apostolic authority and the tenor of these presents, We also decree that they must not dare or presume either to print or to publish or to sell, or in any way to take delivery of such books without Our approval and consent, or without express permission of the Apostolic Commissary in the said parts appointed by Us for that purpose. Each of the said printers must receive from the aforementioned Commissary a standard Missal to serve as an exemplar and agree faithfully therewith, varying in no wise from the first impression printed in Rome.

But, since it would be difficult for this present Constitution to be transmitted to all parts of the world and to come to the notice of all concerned simultaneously, We direct that it be, as usual, posted and published at the doors of the Basilica of the Prince of Apostles, at those of the Apostolic Chancery, and at the end of the Campo dei Fiori; moreover, We direct that printed copies of the same, signed by a notary public and authenticated with the seal of an ecclesiastical dignitary, shall possess the same unqualified and indubitable validity everywhere and in every country that would attend the display there of Our present text.

Accordingly, no one whosoever is permitted to infringe or rashly contravene this notice of Our permission, statute, ordinance, command, direction, grant, indult, declaration, will, decree and prohibition. Should any person venture to do so, let him understand that he will incur the wrath of Almighty God and of the blessed Apostles Peter and Paul.

Given at St. Peter's, Rome, in the year of Our Lord's Incarnation one thousand five hundred and seventy, on the fourteenth day of July in the fifth year of Our Pontificate.

[John Warrington Translation]

DE DEFECTIBUS: ON DEFECTS OCCURRING IN THE CELEBRATION OF MASSES

"The following statement has existed in the introductory pages of the Missale Romanum since the first printed edition in 1474 (the printing press having been invented in 1455). It is founded on a tract entitled Ordo Missae written by John Burchard, later Master of Ceremonies to Pope Innocent VIII (1484-1492) and Pope Alexander VI (1492-1503), from which the first printed edition of the Missale Romanum was formalized a decade or so later. Since the De Defectibus decree concerns a matter of faith - the validity of the Sacrament of the Most Holy Eucharist - it is universal, immutable, and infallible." Fr. Paul L. Kramer

V.1 - Defects of the Form

Defectus ex parte formæ possunt contingere, si aliquid desit ex iis quae ad integritatem verborum in ipsa consecratione requiruntur. Verba autem consecrationis, quæ sunt forma huius Sacramenti, sunt hæ: Hoc est enim Corpus meum. Et: Hic est enim Calix Sanguinis mei, novi et æterni testamenti: mysterium fidei: qui pro vobis et pro multis effundetur in remissionem peccatorum. Si quis autem aliquid diminueret, vel immutaret de forma consecrationis Corporis et Sanguinis, et in ipsa verborum immutatione verba idem non significarent, non conficeret Sacramentum. Si vero aliquid adderet, quod significationem non mutaret, conficeret quidem, sed gravissimo peccaret.

Defects may arise on the part of the form if anything is missing from what is required for the completeness of the words in the Consecration itself. Now the words of the Consecration, which are the form of this Sacrament, are: Hoc est enim Corpus meum. And: Hic est enim Calix Sanguinis mei, novi et aeterni testamenti: mysterium fidei: qui pro vobis et pro multis effundetur in remissionem peccatorum. Now if the priest were to shorten or change anything from the form of the Consecration of the Body and the Blood, and by the change of words the words did not mean the same thing, he would not confect the Sacrament. If, on the other hand, he were to add anything that did not change the meaning, he would confect, but he would be committing a mortal sin.

TRADITIONAL FAST AND ABSTINENCE

The traditional days of fast, partial abstinence, and (complete) abstinence from meat as observed in the United States since 1952 are as follows.

Abstinence. All persons over seven years of age must abstain. This means that they may not take fleshmeat, meat gravy, or meat soup at all on days of complete abstinence, which are all Fridays (except on holydays of obligation), Ash Wednesday, Holy Saturday (until noon), and the Vigils of the Immaculate Conception and Christmas. By the decree of the Sacra Congregatio Concilii, dated December 3, 1959, the fast and abstinence of the Vigil of Christmas may, at the option of the individual, be anticipated on December 23.

They may take meat, but only at the principal meal, on days of partial abstinence, which are Ember Wednesdays and Saturdays, and the Vigils of Pentecost and of All Saints' Day.

Fast. All persons over twenty-one and under fifty-nine years of age must fast. This means that on a fast day they may have only one principal or full meal and two smaller meals. They may eat meat at this principal meal, except on days of complete abstinence. At the two smaller meals they may not have meat, but they may take sufficient food to maintain their strength. However, these two smaller meals together should be less than a full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted, but liquids, including milk and fruit juices, may be taken any time on a fast day. The days of fast are the weekdays of Lent including Holy Saturday (until noon), the Ember Days, and the Vigils of Pentecost, the Immaculate Conception, All Saints' Day, and Christmas (or December 23).

Those not bound to fast may eat meat as often as they wish, except on days of complete abstinence (when it may not be eaten at all), and on days of partial abstinence (when it may be eaten only at the principal meal). When a person's health or ability to work would be seriously affected by fasting or, in even rarer cases, by abstaining, a traditional priest/confessor should be consulted to determine whether the law obliges.

In granting these concessions, the bishops urged the faithful:

- to attend daily Mass during the period of fast and abstinence [if this is not possible, one might say all or part of the Divine Office, the Little Office of the Blessed Virgin Mary, or the Most Holy Rosary]
- to receive Holy Communion often
- to take part more frequently in exercises of piety

- to give generously to works of religion and charity
- to perform acts of kindness toward the sick, the aged, and the poor
- to practice voluntary self-denial
- to pray more fervently

Eucharistic Fast. The fast to be observed before the celebration of Mass or the reception of Holy Communion is traditionally, from the early Church, a strict fast from all solid food and beverages, including water, from midnight preceding Mass.

In 1956, Pope Pius XII limited the period of time for the observance of the Eucharistic fast before the celebration of Mass or the reception of Holy Communion, which some traditional Catholics follow, to three hours from solid food and alcoholic beverages, and to one hour from non-alcoholic beverages, not including water.

In allowing this limitation, however, the pope stated: "We earnestly exhort the priests and faithful who are able to do so to observe the venerable and time-honored form of the Eucharistic fast before the celebration of Mass and the reception of Holy Communion" (Motu Proprio Sacram Communionem), that is, the strict fast from midnight.

TRADITIONAL INDULGENCES

An indulgence is a plenary (complete) or partial remission of the debt of temporal punishment due for the consequences of sin. Even after sin has been forgiven in the Sacrament of Penance, there is a debt of justice to be paid for the residual harm done. For example, if one has spread a calumny about another, the harm done to the person's reputation continues as a result of the sin, even when forgiven in the Sacrament of Penance.

Whatever temporal punishment due that has not been satisfied in this life by a commensurate degree of prayer, fasting, and good works offered to Almighty God in reparation must be remitted in Purgatory. From the writings of the Saints and private revelation, it appears that most souls leave this life with a large debt of temporal punishment to be remitted in Purgatory.

Traditionally, the degree of the debt of sin remitted is indicated relatively in terms of days or years (e.g., 40 days). This indication does not refer to the number of days or years in Purgatory, since time as we know it does not exist there. Rather, the figure indicates the relative remission of so much of the debt of temporal punishment as would be remitted by performing the ancient canonical penances for the equivalent period.

Indeed, the ancient penances were quite severe, for example, the exclusion from church and heavy penances for the entire Lenten period of forty days for those guilty of significant public sins. In effect, the indulgences for meritorious works are an absolution of temporal punishment beyond the usually minimal penances that are nowadays required in the Sacrament of Penance.

The Church, from the treasury of the merits of Christ and His Saints, provides for the remission of temporal punishment through indulgenced prayers, fasting, and good works. Usually, such remission may be applied to oneself or to the Holy Souls in Purgatory. For all indulgences, one must have the right intention, be in the state of grace, and fulfill the prescribed good work.

The seven requirements for the gaining of a plenary indulgence are:

- The intention of gaining the indulgence.
- The state of sanctifying grace, with the required reception of the Sacrament of Penance within eight days either before or after the day to which the indulgence is attached. This confession suffices for the gaining of all indulgences during this period.
- The fulfillment of the prescribed good work.

- Holy Communion on the eve of the day or within its octave. Holy Communion once received suffices for gaining several indulgences on the same day, each of which requires the reception of Holy Communion. If as a result of long illness or some other physical impediment, a person is unable to receive the prescribed Holy Communion, the confessor may substitute some other pious work.
- Visit to a church.
- Vocal Prayer. The prescribed prayers must be vocal, that is, the lips most move, and the words must be at least mouthed silently. Therefore, mental prayer is not sufficient, unless the contrary is expressly stated.
- Prayers for the Pope's Intention. The pope's intention comprises the exaltation of Holy Church, the propagation of the Faith, the extirpation of heresies, concord among Christian rulers, and the welfare and tranquillity of the Christian people (Benedict XIV, Inter Praeteritos). If no set prayers have been prescribed for the intention of the pope, it is sufficient to recite one Pater, one Ave, and one Gloria Patri (six of each for the Toties Quoties indulgence on All Souls Day and on the Sunday following).

The TRADITIO Fathers, several traditional Roman Catholic priests, provide answers by E-mail to inquiries on topics pertaining to traditional Roman Catholicism, including theology, the Bible, Church history, the Latin language, liturgy (especially the Traditional Latin Mass), and music (especially Gregorian chant). Send your question in an E-mail to traditio@traditio.com.

The Fathers extract for their Daily Commentaries department general issues from some of these messages, rewrite them, and anonymize them, to form the basis of providing unique, lively, often bitingly satirical commentary (after the fashion of St. Jerome, St. Thomas More, and other Saints of the Church), from half a century's observation of the Church both pre-and post-Vatican II, on current events in the Catholic Church from the traditional perspective.

TRADITIO was determined by a statistical survey to be the most popular traditional Roman Catholic web site on the internet, almost twice as frequently accessed as the next web site, a book and tape sales site, and almost four times as frequently as the Neo-SSPX site, which placed a distant third.

TRADITIO was selected by the editors of the Encyclopædia Britannica as one of the best on the internet when reviewed for quality, accuracy of content, presentation, and usability. TRADITIO was also selected to receive the Catholic Award and the Mary Award (Holland).

Periodically TRADITIO offers for sale used traditional Catholic books and compact discs that are typically hard to find and not listed on auction sites. Anyone may bid on the lots offered in a "silent" auction in the Booksales department. GREGORIAN CHANT

Provided to the National Registry by the St. John Schola

Gregorian Chant and Scholae

The ancient music of the Roman liturgy used for the Hours of the Divine Office and the Traditional Latin Mass is known as Greogrian chant (plainsong), after Pope St. Gregory I (590-604), who codified the existing chant melodies. The priest and schola sing the appointed parts of the Mass at a Missa Cantata (Sung Mass), High Mass (a more solemn form of the Missa Cantata including incensation), or Missa Solemnis (Solemn Mass, in which a celebrant, deacon, and subdeacon celebrate). A schola is a group of men trained to sing the chant (in convents, this may be a group of women).

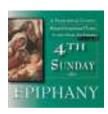

"A Traditional Chapel Sings Gregorian Chant" CD Series

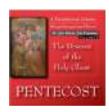

Although there are many recordings made in recording studios, or sometimes in larger churches or monasteries with professional or dedicated choirs, there are few, if any, recordings made by the average small lay choir, chanting what can actually be attempted in the smaller churches, chapels, and oratories, to which the Sacred Chant can be a great addition in the traditional Roman liturgy, not as mere secular performance, but in the actual religious setting for which it was composed, the Traditional Latin Mass and Divine Office of the classical Roman Rite.

The St. John Schola for Gregorian chant is, therefore, recording a CD series consisting of live recordings of the type of chant pieces that may be used at traditional churches and chapels. It makes no pretense to being professional, but to what is achievable, with a little work, by the average small lay choir. The hope is that this series will serve as a practical guide for the wider use of Gregorian chant in the traditional Roman Catholic liturgy. Supporting music sheets and booklets are available to accompany the recordings and aid small choirs in using Gregorian chant for the traditional liturgy.

CMRI indicates a Mass under the auspices of the Congregation of Mary Immaculate Queen (Congregatio Mariae Reginae Immaculatae). Calendar & Rubrics: Traditional Latin Mass and Divine Office, as before the "modernizing" revisions of 1960, and 1962, but including the revisions of 1956 (e.g., the "modernized" Holy Week). Principles: "Since John Paul II has manifestly taught heresy, promoted oecumenism and fostered interfaith worship, he clearly cannot be recognized as a successor of St. Peter in the primacy" (Theological Position of the Congregation of Mary Immaculate Queen, revised July 1, 1997).

Diocese indicates a service held under the auspices of a Newchurch diocese adhering to the invalid Novus Ordo (New Order) service of 1969 as its "Ordinary Rite." This category includes services under the auspices of New Order "Motu" organizations, such as the Fraternity of St. Peter (Fraternitas Sacerdotalis Sancti Petri) and the Institute of Christ the King, High Priest (Institutum Christi Regis, Summi Sacerdotis), which are often permitted to operate only with enforced corruptions of the Traditional Latin Mass. Calendar & Rubrics: The Modernized Mass and Divine Office of 1962, as revised in 1956, 1960, 1962, and beyond. Principles: Uses the Vatican II service of 1962+, aka "Extraordinary," deriving from the Motu Proprio Summorum pontificum of 2007, modernized to the present day. WARNING. All Newchurch diocesan services are invalid under the principles of traditional Catholic theology, whether they happen to be held in the vernacular tongues or in Latin. These churches are often misnamed as "Catholic," but are actually attached to the Newchurch of the New Order. All Newchurch diocesan services are invalid and should be scrupulously avoided by the faithful; moreover, the "Motu" service is not the Traditional Latin Mass. For further information, see the chapter Warning against Pseudo-traditional Services.

Catholicism, not including Old Catholicism or Eastern Orthodoxy, and operating independently of any local diocesan bishop, but without being associated with one of the larger traditional organizations specifically broken out in these listings (viz., CMRI, SSPV, Neo-SSPX). Calendar & Rubrics: Usually the true Traditional Latin Mass and Divine Office, as before the "modernizing" revisions of 1956, 1960, and 1962, depending upon the individual Mass site. Principles: Operates by virtue of Church-supplied jurisdiction in accordance with the provisions of Canon 209 (1917)/Canon 144 (1983) and under the theological principle of epikeia arising from the state of urgent necessity in the Church (v. Fr. Paul L. Kramer, B.Ph., S.T.B., M. Div., A Theological Vindication of Roman Catholic Traditionalism).

SSPV indicates a Mass under the auspices of the Priestly Society of St. Pius V (Societas Sacerdotalis Sancti Pii Quinti). Calendar & Rubrics: The true Traditional Latin Mass and Divine Office, as before the "modernizing" revisions of 1956, 1960, and 1962. Principles: "There is certain and sufficient evidence to assert, as a legitimate theological opinion, that anyone who publicly professes the conciliar [Novus Ordo] religion does not legitimately hold any position of authority in the Catholic Church" (A Statement of Principles in a Time of Crisis, revised 1988).

NSSPX ("Neo-SSPX") indicates a Mass under the auspices of the Neo-Priestly Society of St. Pius X (Societas Sacerdotalis Sancti Pii Decimi). Calendar & Rubrics: The Modernized Mass and Divine Office of 1962, as revised in 1956, 1960, and 1962, and at some sites with elements of the Novus Ordo service of 1969. Principles: Since at least 2000 the NSSPX has been abandoning the traditional principles of Archbishop Marcel Lefebvre's original SSPX and has been officially moving toward affiliation with the invalid New Order sect. For further information, see the chapter Warning against Pseudo-traditional Services.

HOW TO CHOOSE A TRADITIONAL LATIN MASS

When choosing a Traditional Latin Mass site, normally you should make a choice in the following order of preference to have access to the most traditional Roman Catholic Mass and Sacraments.

Note that these icons are applied by SPONSORING ORGANIZATION, NOT BY INDIVIDUAL SITES, on the basis of degree of the ORGANIZATION'S affinity to the fully Traditional Latin Mass. See the chatper Warning against Pseudo-traditional Services.

RECOMMENDED

- 1. Undependent. These sites are not formally associated with the New Order sect or any other organization (e.g., Neo-Society of St. Pius X). In this situation, you are most likely to get the Traditional Latin Mass and traditional Catholic Faith. Many of these sites use the fully Traditional Latin Mass before the "moderizations" starting in 1951.
- 2. Society of St. Pius V. These sites use the fully Traditional Latin Mass before 1951.
- 3. Congregation of Mary Immaculate Queen. These sites use the Traditional Latin Mass with just the 1951-1956 changes, but not the later ones from 1957 to 1962.

NOT RECOMMENDED SOME SITES POSSIBLY INVALID AND UNTRADITIONAL

- 4. Feeneyite. These sites embrace a doctrine on justification contrary to that of the dogmatic Council of Trent. In some cases, they have interrupted traditional Catholic services.
- 5. Neo-Society of St. Pius X ("Neo-SSPX, NSSPX"). These sites have been associating with the New Order sect since 2005. Reports of corruptions imported from the invalid Novus Ordo service (e.g., the use of unordained Novus Ordo presbyters, eucharistic ministresses, hosts from the Novus Ordo services, and other corruptions have been reported).

NOT RECOMMENDED
INVALID AND UNTRADITIONAL

- 6. Diocese (Vatican II aka "Extraordinary" service). All Newchurch diocesan services are invalid under the principles of traditional Catholic theology, whether they happen to be held in the vernacular tongues or in Latin. These churches are often misnamed as "Catholic," but are actually attached to the Newchurch of the New Order. All Newchurch diocesan services are invalid and should be scrupulously avoided by the faithful; moreover, the "Extraordinary/1962+" service is not the Traditional Latin Mass. For further information, see the chapter Warning against Pseudo-traditional Services.
- 7. All Newchurch diocesan services are invalid under the principles of traditional Catholic theology. They are often hurches are often misnamed as "Catholic," but they are actually attached to the Newchurch of the New Order, whether their services happen to be in vernacular or Latin. These sites use New Order presbyters not ordained, but merely "installed" by unconsecrated New Order Newbishops "to preside over the assembly of the people" under the invalid New Ordinal of 1968 instead of using Catholic priests ordained under the traditional Sacrament of Holy Orders "to offer Mass for the living and the dead." These "Extraordinary" services are usually mixed in with invalid Novus Ordo services of 1962+ The unavailability of a Traditional Latin Mass is never a justification to attend the invalid Protestant-Masonic-Pagan Novus Ordo service. See the chapter Warning against Pseudo-Traditional Services.

Eastern Rites are not a viable option for Latin Rite Catholics. Not only are they not the proper canonic rite for western-rite Catholics but also truly Catholic and Apostolic Eastern rite sites are very few and far between, much harder to find than Traditional Latin Masses. Almost all of them have been corrupted by the invalid Novus Ordo service or have otherwise abandoned their Apostolic form.

WARNING AGAINST PSEUDO-TRADITIONAL SERVICES

Traditional Catholics should scrupulously Diocesan sites, which are not allowed to offer the Traditional Latin Mass, but must offer one of the following pseudotraditional services:

- 1. the defective Vatican II "Motu" Mass of 1962 as subsequently modernized by the New Order sect to the present day
- 2. the defective or invalid Vatican II "Motu" Mass of 1962 as subsequently modernized with elements of the invalid Novus Ordo service of 1969
- 3. the invalid Vatican II "Latin Mass," which is the Novus Ordo service of 1969, partly or totally in Latin

These services are most definitely not the Traditional Latin Mass, although they may be falsely advertised as such, or as a "Latin Mass," an ambiguous term that includes anything from the invalid Novus Ordo service in Latin to the fully Traditional Latin Mass.

Since Protocol 1411 of July 3, 1999, issued by the Vatican's Congregatio pro Divino Cultu, "Motu" organizations have been forced into a direct collaboration with the Novus Ordo service. These pseudo-traditional services also deviate in one or more ways from the traditional Catholic practices (in force even in 1962), such as:

• using Novus Ordo presbyters (indicated as Presb. in the listings) merely "installed to preside over the assembly" under the invalid New Ordinal of 1968 instead of using priests ordained under the valid traditional Ordinal "to offer Mass for the living and the dead"; some of these sites use presbyters installed under the invalid New Ordinal of 1968 by Novus Ordo "bishops" never consecrated under the valid traditional Ordinal (virtually all clergy in the New Order sect have never been traditionally ordained and therefore have no power to offer validly the Traditional Latin Mass, only the invalid Novus Ordo service)

- using modifications introduced after 1962, such those of 1964 or those of 2007 (Summorum pontificum)
- "oecumenizing" the ancient prayer of Good Friday for the Jews
- mixing in elements of the invalid Novus Ordo service
- using the New Calendar, the New Lectionary, or the new rubrics of 1964 or later
- using a church building where the Novus Ordo service is also held, thus profaning the altar
- giving "communion" in the hand
- mixing New Order cookies and traditional Hosts in the tabernacle
- using lay "ministers" and "ministresses"
- using "altar girls"
- enforcing standing rather than kneeling at the Canon or when receiving "communion"
- eliminating the traditional Collect prayers and the Leonine prayers after Low Mass
- transferring or eliminating traditional holydays
- holding Saturday "anticipated" services instead of Mass on the Lord's Day
- virtually abolishing the traditional Eucharistic fast and traditional days of fast and abstinence

A NOTE ON SEDE-VACANTISM

Sede-vacantism, the opinion that the papacy is currently vacant on account of adherence to the heresy of the Modernism and the New Order, amounts to a merely personal opinion on the part of someone that involves applying certain principles of Roman Catholic theology to a specific factual situation. It is not a doctrinal issue, as a sede-vacantist certainly accepts the Roman Catholic dogma on the papacy as defined at Vatican I. A personal opinion of sede-vacantism has no impact on the validity of the true Mass, Sacraments, and Faith. It is not heretical or schismatic. Traditional Catholic theologians of the past indicate various ways by which an official decision could be made. Thus, sede-vacantism was considered at least a theoretical possibility by even Doctors of the Church.

In practice, traditional Catholics are minimally affected by the issue. Traditional Catholics are not going with the "New Mass," the "New Sacraments," the "New Morality," and the "New Theology," no matter who is pope, because that would be an offense against God Himself and a violation of the Apostolic Deposit of Faith. Any pope who would dare to violate the constitution of his papal office is acting outside his authority, and such acts are thus null and void anyway, according to the dogmatic decree Pastor Aeternus of Vatican I.

What a particular priest's opinion about an individual pope (as opposed to the doctrine on the office of the papacy itself) is, does not impinge on the traditional Mass, Sacraments, or Faith. Those are set in Catholic doctrine and Tradition, no matter who the pope is or is not.

After all, the Deposit of Faith does not belong to the pope. It is the Church's treasure of truth that has been taught during twenty centuries. The pope is obligated to transmit it faithfully and exactly to all those under him. He is not free to do anything he pleases. Nor can we follow his error and change God's truth, just because the one who is charged with transmitting it is weak and allows error to spread around him. Remember that dogmatic council Vatican I found that some 40 of 260 popes had at one time or another personally taught error. One pope was excommunicated. One pope was deposed from office. Catholics must remain faithful to the Roman Catholic Church and the papacy of two thousand years, not novelties that have been taught for just the last forty years.

Traditional Catholics should be looking for a site where the unadulterated Traditional Latin Mass and Sacraments are offered and where the traditional Roman Catholic Faith is preached. In the end, if you have a priest who professes the traditional Roman Catholic Faith, celebrates exclusively the Traditional Latin Mass, and administers the traditional Sacraments, support him, help him, be loyal to him, pray for him. You have a very special gift for which hundreds of thousands of traditional Catholics around the world are praying ceaselessly.

MASS SITE TOTALS

RECOMMENDED: This icon represents a Mass by organizations that are fully traditional.

NOT RECOMMENDED OR CONDEMNED AS INVALID AND UNCATHOLIC: This icon represents a Mass or service by a not-fully-traditional organization with various corruptions imported from the Motu "Mass of 1962+," which is not the Traditional Latin Mass, or the invalid Novus Ordo service of 1969. These sites must be avoided by true Catholics. Particularly in the case of services listed as Diocese and celebrants listed as Presbyter, one can assume the service to be invalid. See the chapter Warning against Pseudo-Traditional Services above.

Note that these icons are applied by organization, not by individual sites, on the basis of degree of affinity to the fully Traditional Latin Mass. See the chapters How to Choose a Traditional Latin Mass and Warning against Pseudo-traditional Services.

TRADITIONAL CATHOLIC SCHOOLING

Higher Education

Archbishop Fulton Sheen (1895-1979) was well known for his many books, radio and television appearances, and popular preaching. While teaching at the Catholic University of America for nearly 25 years and dealing with students, he noted with deep concern what was happening in Catholic education and the fact that many young people were losing the Faith since Vatican II (1962-1965). His warning on higher education, given around 1967, was as prophetic as it was startling:

You are better off going to a state school where you will have the chance to fight for your Faith, than going to a modern Catholic university where you will have the new watereddown, modernist version of the Faith spoon-fed to your unsuspecting minds, so that you will be apt to lose your Faith.

The best choice, when possible, is a conservative liberal arts college. The best major is Classics (Latin and Greek), which, in addition to giving the foundation for all secular and religious study, is usually one of the most conservative departments at any given institution. Institutions associated with the New Order and the "New Mass," even when billed as "conservative," should be particularly avoided, in accordance with the advice of Archbishop Sheen.

In addition to getting a thorough grounding in the classical languages, students should emphasize philosophy (particularly classical and mediaeval philosophy), music (particularly early and classical music), history (particularly ancient and mediaeval history), mathematics and the natural sciences, psychology and the social sciences (one must be careful here in choosing conservative courses), and oratory and rhetoric (sometimes called "Speech").

Conservative liberal arts colleges that offer such programs include:

Emory University (Atlanta, Georgia): www.emory.edu Hillsdale College (Hillsdale, Michigan): www.hillsdale.edu

Kindergarten through Grade 12

Traditional Catholic writer Patricius Anthony has remarked:

After a year teaching in a Novus Ordo "Catholic" school, I can strongly recommend that parents who are really concerned about their children's moral and intellectual development home-school their children.

RELIGION

More and more Catholics, tiring of the "New Mass" in the vernacular with contemporary music, are seeking the Traditional Latin Mass, the Roman Catholic Mass of 2000 years, as it existed before the introduction of a radically-changed "New Order" service after the Second Vatican Council (1963–1965). The Traditional Latin Mass never disappeared, and is more popular today than ever, spurred on by such energetic supporters as film star Mel Gibson and Pope Benedict XVI.

This Annual Edition of the Official Traditional Catholic Directory provides the only comprehensive listing of the over 600 Traditional Latin Masses regularly and publicly celebrated in the United States and Canada.

The Official Traditional Catholic Directory also provides extensive lists of traditional resources, including traditional Catholic organizations, seminaries, religious orders, lay societies, periodicals, suppliers, retreats, and schooling, as well as contacts for Traditional Latin Masses outside the United States and Canada, It also includes information on traditional practices, such as the Friday abstinence from meat.

Devout Catholics everywhere will want to have on their bookshelf the storehouse of information contained in this new edition, which includes significant updates to the listings from the previous annual edition.

Fr. M. E. Morrison is a traditional Catholic priest. He has produced numerous articles and audiotapes for the general public on the Traditional Latin Mass and has been the compiler of the annual Official Traditional Catholic Directory since its first edition in 1994.
